

Make a “healthy” introduction into the marketplace! Consumers are keenly interested in health, wellness, and nutritional foods & beverages to enhance their personal well-being. However, an increasing number of consumers have embraced a more balanced lifestyle. There’s an 11.6 % opportunity to increase margin-rich functional ingredients for cognitive health and a 15% opportunity for anxiety and stress. The right place to begin this process is with a supplier that offers a wide range of functional ingredients with a proven track record of success in the market. Batory Foods offers these ingredients and enables your R&D department to scale up in rapid succession.
